Our Quality Work

- Core Materials:

In the field of interior design, materials refer to the core substances that makes the structure or body of a piece of modular furniture strong. Modular furniture in particular is built using brand certified materials Commercial Plywood(303 Grade), Medium Density Fiberboard (MDF), High Density Fiber Materials such as planks (HDF), boiling water-resistant plywood (BWP; 710 Grade) and high density, high humidity resistant (HDHMR) wood composites are designed to achieve.

- Hardware:

Fittings are an integral part of adding a touch of sophistication to any interior. As a result, technology and the latest innovations are now available in a variety of designs, materials and finishes to match the style you need. Synchronized with top-notch features, these hardware add features while ensuring longevity in low-friction applications. Interior fittings are therefore an essential and inevitable part of keeping interior components constrained and substantial.

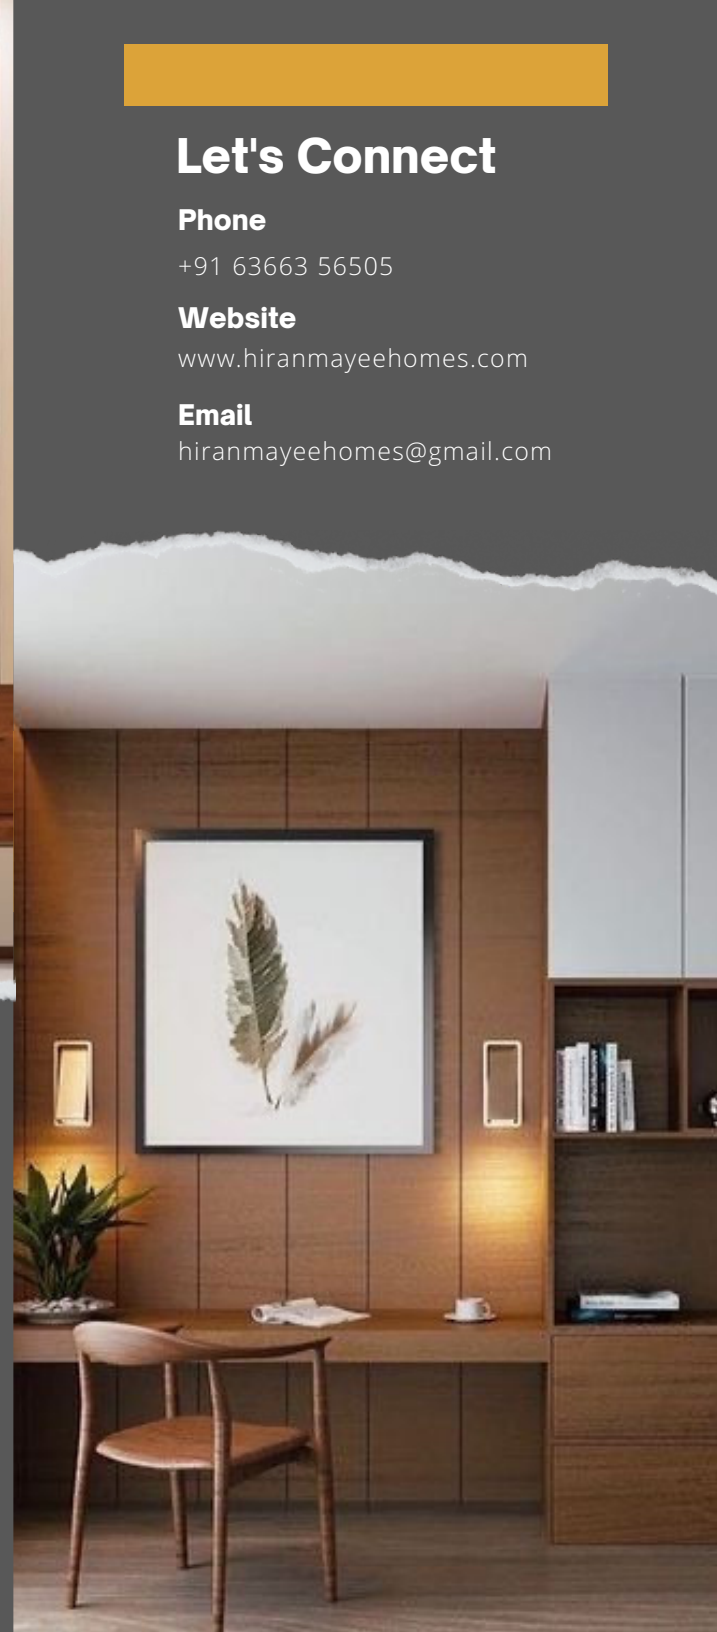

● SPACE PLANING

Space planning occurs prior to the actual designing process. Every living space has its own requirements. Space planning ensures that interior designers adhere to purpose, functional requirements, and layout planing.

● FINISHING

Interior finishes include all natural and synthetic materials to cover the interior and exterior of the building frameworks to improve service and aesthetic quality. Finishing work is the final stage of the interiors.
